TOPEKA, Kans., August 1 -- Mrs. Bob Dole, wife of the Congressman who is a candidate for the U.S. Senate seat being vacated by Senator Frank Carlson, presented a cake to Carlson shortly before he left for Miami for the Republican national convention.

The presentation was made in the Kansas City airport tonight as the Senator and Mrs. Carlson, the state's GOP delegates, alternates and other persons prepared to leave for the presidential nominating convention. Carlson's name will be placed in nomination as a favorite son of the Kansas delegation.

When she presented the cake featuring an outline of the state and the words "Frank Carlson -- Everyone's Favorite Son", Mrs. Dole said, "I only wish Bob and I could be in Miami to join in the salute to you. On behalf of all Kansans, we present you this cake as a token of the respect and affection we all have for you."
