OCTOBER 13, 1968

FOR RELEASE MONDAY P.M.'s OCTOBER 14, 1968

Speaking to a group of campaign volunteers in Topeka today, Congressman Bob Dole announced that since Congress has completed its work, he will be campaigning day and night between now and November 5.

Dole estimated over 100 engagements are scheduled, and plans are being made for many more.

"I am more convinced than ever," said Dole, "that Kansans have had enough of the Humphrey-Johnson type administration and those, like my opponent, who apparently would support a continuation and expansion of 'Great Society' policies. I intend to point up the failures of this Administration and to correct misstatements made by my opponent.

"Kansas voters will not be misled by political propaganda and in some instances outright distortion. Those who indicate, by inference, that they would, if elected, vote for every spending program proposed in Congress will get the message from the voters on November 5. America is on the verge of fiscal bankruptcy. Irresponsible positions without regard to the interest of American taxpayers cannot be tolerated.

"There are," Dole added, "meaningful issues in this campaign, and the most important is whether or not Humphrey-Johnson policies will be continued by electing Humphrey and those who indicate a willingness to 'rubberstamp' everything Humphrey might do if elected. There is one clear alternative for all Kansans who are opposed to further 'Great Society' blundering, and that is supporting Dick Nixon and those who have demonstrated a willingness to stop the march of big government, halt inflation, reduce crime and violence, and restore government wherever possible to local levels and the individual.

"Those who say they will support everything that might come to Congress," Dole warned, "are inviting fiscal disaster and a federal takeover."

Dole will campaign in Topeka, Lyons and Netawaka on Monday. On Tuesday he will be in Pittsburg, Salina, Abilene and Garden City.
