FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

#214

WASHINGTON, D.C. Oct. 20, 1969---U.S. Senator Bob Dole (R-Kans.) today praised the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc., for its role in promoting civic affairs.

Dole, in remarks on the Senate floor, said, "This week has been designated National Business Women's Week. This year marks the 50th anniversary of an organization which has enjoyed a long reputation as one of the foremost women's organizations in this country---the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc.

"Efforts of its members to examine issues in all areas of citizen concern have earned the members a well-deserved reputation as invaluable contributors to the public good.

"I am proud that the Business and Professional Women of Kansas have taken a leading role in the affairs of their communities

"I commend the Business and Professional Women of America for their services to our nation and wish them continued success.
