FOR RELEASE MONDAY, A.M., JULY 27, 1970

#489

WASHINGTON, D.C. JULY 27 -- U.S. Senator Bob Dole (R.-Kansas) today released a partial list of television stations he has requested provide air time, without cost, to present the viewpoint of those opposing the "Amendment to End the War."

"I have written the television stations currently running or scheduled to run spot advertisements purchased by the "Amendment to End the War" Committee," Dole said.

"Under the Fairness Doctrine, a broadcasting station is required to present contrasting views on all issues of public controversy. That obligation to broadcast opposing views applies, regardless of the availability of paid sponsorship."

Dole said he had received a number of responses from television stations throughout the country indicating a willingness to schedule, without cost, spots presenting the viewpoint of those who oppose the "Amendment to End the War."

Attached are copies of the letter sent and a partial list of the broadcasting stations receiving this letter.

FROM: THE OFFICE OF U.S. SENATOR BOB DOLE
NEW SENATE OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

LETTER SENT TO BROADCASTING STATIONS RUNNING "AMENDMENT TO END THE WAR" ADVERTISING SPOTS.

DEAR:

I have been informed you are currently running a spot schedule purchased by the "Amendment to End the War" Committee in support of the McGovern-Hatfield Amendment to the Military Procurement Authorization Act.

The Fairness Doctrine, as you know, requires that you present contrasting views on all issues of public controversy. The obligation to broadcast opposing views applies, regardless of availability of paid sponsorship.

Therefore, comparable air time, without cost, to present contrasting views on the "Amendment to End the War" (Amendment 609 to H.R. 17123) is respectfully requested.

Since Senate consideration of the Amendment is pending, I urge immediate consideration of this request.

Sincerely yours,

BOB DOLE
U.S. Senate
