FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 1, 1971 ---- Nine Hutchinson high school students accompanied by one adult visited with U.S. Sen. Bob Dole in the Capitol's Senate Reception Room last week while participating in a six-day Christian Citizenship Seminar.

Those attending from Hutchinson were: Mr. Wesley W. Darrow, Daniel Jones, Donald Jones, Roger Peckover, Karen Quakenbush, David Sampson, Larry Hornbaker, Stan Singleton, Paul Crabb, Kathy Blocher.

This seminar was the 25th in a series beginning in 1950 sponsored by the Church of the Brethern. Mr. Tomlonson, associate pastor of the McPherson Church of the Brethern, served as coordinator for the 33-member Kansas delegation.

The group spent three days in New York observing the United Nations before arriving in Washington for the last leg of the trip. While in Washington, the students visited Congress in session, committee hearings, the Supreme Court, the State Department, the White House, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Smithsonian Institution and the Washington offices of the National Council of Churches and the Church of the Brethern.
