FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WASHINGTON, D.C., JUNE 3, 1971 -- U.S. Senator Bob Dole today announced the appointment of Robert L. Rebein, a native of Ellinwood, Kansas, as the Interstate Commerce Commission's Assistant Managing Director, the agency's number two staff position.

Rebein will be an assistant to ICC Chairman, George M. Stafford, also a Kansan.

Rebein, a former Congressional attorney and FBI agent, received his law degree from the University of Kansas in 1954, having previously been awarded a B.S. degree in accounting from the same school. Rebein has been admitted to practice before the Kansas Supreme Court, the Federal District Court of Kansas and the United States Supreme Court.

Dole termed the appointment, "an excellent selection" saying, "Bob Rebein has over 15 years of career government service and has consistently proven to be an outstanding public servant."

Rebein was formerly the staff attorney to the Special Subcommittee on Investigations of the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce of the U.S. House of Representatives.

Rebein's new appointment becomes effective June 21, 1971.
