*FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*

WASHINGTON, D.C., Aug. 1 --- Miss Marilyn Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver H. Hughes, 1966 Morningside, Emporia, Ks., recently returned home from a five-week internship in the Washington office of U.S. Sen. Bob Dole (R-Kans.).

Miss Hughes, who is a senior at the University of Kansas majoring in elementary education, is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma social sorority where she serves as president.

In addition to regular secretarial duties, Miss Hughes assisted in the press department and served as a tour guide for Kansas constituents.

While an intern in the Dole office, Miss Hughes had the opportunity to hear several nationally known speakers as a part of a special summer intern program. Some of these people included: U.S. Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.), U.S. Sen. Edward M. Kennedy (D-Mass.), U.S. Sen. Edmund S. Muskie (D-Maine), U.S. Sen. Charles H. Percy (R-Ill.), U.S. Sen. Peter H. Dominick (R-Colo.). Miss Hughes with the other Dole interns met privately with Senate Majority Leader Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) and U.S. Sen. Adlai E. Stevenson III (D-Ill.)

Of her summer experiences, Miss Hughes commented, "It was a great opportunity because we were able to take advantage of so many unique learning experiences which Washington, D.C. has to offer."
