*FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*

WASHINGTON, D.C., Aug. 23, 1971 ---- Peter Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Williams, Russell, this week completed a five-week summer internship program in the Washington, D.C. office of U.S. Sen. Bob Dole (R-Kans.)

Williams' activities while on Capital Hill included attending subcommittee meetings of the Senate Committee on Public Works, of which Dole is a member, assisting legislative and press aides, and guiding visiting Kansans around the Capitol.

Returning to Topeka this week, Williams will begin his sophomore year at Washburn University where he is majoring in business administration.

While in high school, Williams was active in the Teenage Republican Federation. Presently, he is finance director for the College Young Republicans at Washburn.
