FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE -- JUNE 21, 1972

Washington, D.C., JUNE 21, 1972 -- Senator Bob Dole announced today the appointment of Sister Mary Serena Sheehy to President Nixon's National Advisory Committee for the Handicapped. The appointment is for three years with three meetings a year.

Sister Sheehy, is currently on the Board of Trustees at the Sisters of Charity of Leavenworth, Leavenworth, Kansas.

Dole said, "Sister Sheehy's experience makes her an excellent choice for this vitally important committee assignment. I am confident her contributions will play an important role in the improvement of opportunities for America's handicapped."
