Joe Reppert—Press Secretary

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
MAY 22, 1973

The President's statement of this afternoon clearly puts some of the more sensational recent Watergate headlines in perspective as only a straightforward statement by the President could. He has convincingly disentangled from the Watergate case those matters of legitimate national security importance which have become associated with Watergate in the public's mind. I applaud his statement and offer my continuing support to the President in his commitment to uncovering the full facts of this case.
