WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Senators Bob Dole and James Pearson, and Congressman Larry Winn today announced the Farmers Home Administration Administration's approval of a $160,000 loan to Cozy Haven, Inc. of Spring Hill, Kansas to develop an elderly rental housing project.

The funds will be used to construct a 12-unit apartment complex to help relieve the shortage of rental housing for the elderly that exists in the community.

"We had previously contacted the Director of the Farmer's Home Administration in Washington to request that the Spring Hill application be allowed to ~~be~~ processed in spite of the January Housing moratorium," Dole said, "and are pleased to announce that the funds have been approved!"
