(R.—Kans.)

New Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510 (202) 225-6521

Joe Reppert—Press Secretary

July 6, 1973

Senator Bob Dole announced today through his Washington office that he had been in contact again with the Public Works Committee of the House of Representatives to urge early action on the prospectus for the new federal building in Topeka. Dole pointed out that the Senate Public Works committee had completed favorable action on the prospectus and that when House committee action was completed, site selection procedures could begin.
