NEWS from U.S. Senator Bob Dole

(R.-Kans.)

New Senate Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20510 (202) 225–6521 FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE NOVEMBER 24, 1973

OEO GRANT TO JOHNSON COUNTY

WASHINGTON, D.C.--Senators Bob Dole and James Pearson and Congressman Larry Winn today announced a $4,200 general community programming grant from the Office of Economic Opportunity to the Johnson County Commissioners.

The grant was issued to provide outreach and referral programs to locate, identify and refer needed services to low-income individuals and families. Services will be provided in the areas of housing, health, education, manpower and community development.

Mrs. Betty Cooper will be project director for the grant that will run for three months beginning January 1, 1974.
