DOLE SPECULATES ON STAFFORD RE-APPOINTMENT

(R.-Kans.)

TOPEKA--After conversations with White House sources, Senator Bob Dole today predicted that George M. Stafford would be re-appointed by President Nixon to serve again as the Chairman of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Stafford was first appointed to the Commission by President Lyndon Johnson in April, 1967. A Valley Falls native, Stafford is the first Kansan to serve on the ICC. He was Commenting on the speculation surrounding Stafford's re-appointment, Dole said, "While it is not yet a certainty, I feel confident that the President will re-appoint Chairman Stafford. He has served effectively in his capacity as Chairman and should continue to do so." This press release is from the collections at the Robert J.
