GRANTS WILL EXTEND MANPOWER PROJECTS IN KANSAS

WASHINGTON, D.C.--Senators Bob Dole and James Pearson today announced that Manpower projects in three Kansas communities have been extended with grants totalling nearly $285,000 from the U.S. Department of Labor.

Dole said that the bulk of the funds went to Neighborhood Youth Corps projects which gives jobs to disadvantaged school-age young persons to help them stay in school or, if they are drop-outs, to prepare for unsubsidized employments. Also extended was one Operation Mainstream project which gives jobs to older workers who have suffered chronic unemployment.

NYC in-school projects in the state are now funded through the end of the school year, NYC out-of-school till July 20 and Operation Mainstream through August.

Following are the local grants:

Kansas City Economic Opportunity Foundation

$60,182 for 40 NYC out-of-school enrollees

$48,120 for 21 Operation Mainstream enrollees

Unified School District #500

$40,240 for 181 NYC in-school enrollees

Ottawa East Central Kansas Community Action Program, Inc.

$40,780 for 76 NYC in-school enrollees and 13 NYC out-of-school enrollees

Wichita Unified School District #259

$95,560 for 351 NYC in-school enrollees
