OVER HALF MILLION DOLLARS IMPACT AID FOR KANSAS

WASHINGTON, D.C.--Senators Bob Dole and James Pearson today announced, through their Washington offices, that $557,283 has been certified for immediate payment to five Kansas school districts by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

This money is made available through Title I of Public law 874 which provides financial assistance to schools in federally affected areas. An amendment added by Dole to the School Lunch Bill made 94 federally impacted Kansas school districts eligible for federal payments during 1974. Kansas had previously been found ineligible for federal impact aid funds by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. Earlier this week, $1,110,719 had been certified for payment to nine other Kansas school districts.

Following are the school districts and money that has been certified today:

Douglass Unified School District No. 396	$10,549.
Rose Hill Unified School District No. 394	$16,467.
Wichita Unified School Dist. No. 259	$497,259.
Powhattan School District No. 510	$25,933.
Baldwin City Unified School Dist. No. 348	$ 7,075
