URBAN RENEWAL FUNDS TO MANHATTAN

WASHINGTON, D.C. --- Senator Bob Dole has been informed that the Department of Housing and Urban Development has awarded a HUD Neighborhood Development Program Grant in the amount of $802,860 to the Urban Renewal Agency of Manhattan.

This amount added to the $750,417 previously provided brings the total to $1,553,284 for the Urban Renewal Agency of Manhattan - Southeast Plaza area.

The grant is to provide transition funds to be used for acquisitions involving 45 individual parcels. It will fund demolition, rehabilitation and relocation activities and special improvement of alley paving in construction of sidewalks.
