COSPONSORS FLOCK TO DOLE GRAIN EMBARGO BILL--BIPARTISAN SUPPORT

WASHINGTON-- Co-sponsors are flocking to Senator Bob Dole's grain embargo bill, which calls for an immediate end to the January 7 Administration action banning grain sales to the Soviet Union.

"We have sixteen co-sponsors on board as of Monday morning-- a very good response considering we were able to get hold of a very few Senators over the weekend," said Dole.

Also, companion bills have been introduced in the House, including a measure by Rep. James Abnor (R.-S.D.) and a Democrat supported version.

"The best lobbyist we have going for us on this bill is the Administration," Dole said. "Every time they make a bad move, we add sponsors."
