PRESIDENT'S AWARD WINNER VON EULERT

MEETS WITH SENATOR DOLE

WASHINGTON -- Wichitan Von Eulert, winner of the PRESIDENT'S ACTION AWARD, and her husband Arnold, visited Senator Bob Dole on Wednesday, April 14.

Mrs. Eulert was 1 of 20 individuals and organizations selected to receive the President's Volunteer Action Award during White House ceremonies the following day. She was recognized for her 16 years of efforts on behalf of the visually impaired in training volunteers, brailleing textbooks in math and science, and developing new technology using magnetic tape. Mr. Eubert is a design engineer with the Beech Aircraft Corporation.
