DOLE AND KASSEBAUM ANNOUNCE APPOINTMENT OF WICHITAN TO TOPEKA HOME LOAN BANK BOARD

WASHINGTON - Kansas Senators Bob Dole and Nancy Landon Kassebaum announced today the appointment of Patricia M. Ranson of Wichita as a director of the Federal Home Loan Bank Board of Topeka. HUD Secretary Jack Kemp, as chairman of the new Federal Housing Finance Board, formally approved the appointment today.

"Pat Ranson is a first-rate addition to the Board. Her vast experience in finance and community affairs, and her commitment to Kansas make her an excellent choice for this important directorship," said Dole.

"Pat's professional judgement and expertise in finance and investment will be decided assets to the bank board," added Kassebaum.

Ranson is a principal of Ranson & Co., an investment consulting concern in Wichita.
