WHITEWATER & CONGRESSIONAL HEARINGS

WASHINGTON -- Senate Republican Leader Bob Dole today issued the following statement:

“Today’s report that high-ranking White House officials may have attempted to interfere with the independence of the RTC further underscores the need for Congressional hearings into the Whitewater-Madison affair and this administration’s handling of it.

“When White House political operatives may be playing fast and loose with a politically independent agency, Congress has an obligation to exercise its oversight authority and establish the facts.”
