WASHINGTON D.C. -- In an address today to the National Governor's Association, Kansas Senator Bob Dole called for the passage of a growth-oriented Farm Bill, urging Democrats to drop a filibuster blocking quick action in the U.S. Senate. Dole also re-stated his support for retaining the ethanol tax credit and his belief that ethanol is good for agriculture, the economy and the environment. Video of the remarks is available from 3:45 - 4:00 p.m. EST.
