DOLE SAYS AMBASSADOR YOUNG SHOULD 'STEP ASIDE' NOW

WASHINGTON-- Senator Bob Dole (R.-Kansas) today made the following statement regarding Ambassador Andrew Young's meeting with a PLO representative:

"I was not surprised to learn that Ambassador Young deliberately misinformed the State Department and an Assistant Secretary of State about the nature of his meeting with the PLO. Embarrassing the Carter Administration is one thing, but this time Ambassador Young's actions directly effect our delicate foreign policy negotiations and could undermine our relations with Israel.

"President Carter made a promise in 1976 to fire any Cabinet officer who did not level with the American people. I firmly believe the time has come for Ambassador Young to step aside."
