KANSAS STUDENTS TAMERA D. SCHLEGEL AND CHRIS KARLIN

INTERN FOR SENATOR DOLE

WASHINGTON -- Tamera D. Schlegel, daughter of Franklin and Norma Schlegel of Bazine, and Chris Karlin, son of Vivian M. Karlin of Hays, recently completed a four-week internship in Washington, D.C. with Senator Bob Dole.

Tamera, a first-year law student at Washburn University of Topeka School of Law, and Chris, a senior at Fort Hays University, worked for the Senator's Finance Committee staff. Tamera and Chris organized and prepared Finance Committee documents and aided the Committee staff during Finance Committee hearings.

Chris, a senior at Fort Hays State University, worked as a member of the Senator's Finance Committee staff. During his internship, Chris performed the duties of a staff assistant.

Senator Dole runs one of the largest internship programs on Capitol Hill, employing over 30 Kansas students each summer. According to Dole, "Internships are a valuable educational experience for young Kansans interested in government and politics. I am pleased that we have been able to afford that opportunity to bright, enthusiastic students like Tamera and Chris."
