MICHAEL STINEMAN OF SALINA INTERNS FOR SENATOR DOLE

WASHINGTON -- R. Michael Stineman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard O. Stineman of Salina and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Stineman and Mrs. Marguerite B. Winger of Newton, recently completed a four-week internship in Washington, D.C. with Senator Bob Dole.

Michael, a senior at the University of Kansas, worked as a member of the Senator's Finance Committee staff. During his internship, Michael answered constituent correspondence and attended lectures by such political leaders as Senator Howard Baker, Secretary of the Interior James Watt, and Presidential Aide Edwin Meese III.

"I learned quite a bit about how the legislative process works," said Michael. "The experience I gained is without comparison to anything I've ever done before."

Senator Dole runs one of the largest internship programs on Capitol Hill, employing over 30 Kansas students each summer. According to Dole, "Internships are a valuable educational experience for young Kansans interested in government and politics. I am pleased that we have been able to afford that opportunity to bright, enthusiastic students like Michael."
