KAY DEEVER OF JUNCTION CITY INTERNS FOR SENATOR DOLE

WASHINGTON -- Kay L. Deever, daughter of Harold Deever of Junction City, recently completed a four-week internship in Washington, D.C. with Senator Bob Dole.

Kay, a senior at Kansas State University, worked as a member of the Senator's Judiciary Committee staff. During her internship, Kay conducted research on various legislative subjects, answered mail to constituents, and attended intern seminars provided under the program.

According to Kay, her internship was "an eye-opening experience, however cliché that may sound. I was given a chance to see the legislative process firsthand including Judiciary and Finance Committee hearings and action on the Senate floor. I enjoyed every aspect of the internship, especially the quality of the people with whom I worked."

Senator Dole runs one of the largest internship programs on Capitol Hill, employing over 30 Kansas students each summer. According to Dole, "Internships are a valuable educational experience for young Kansans interested in government and politics. I am pleased that we have been able to afford that opportunity to bright, enthusiastic students like Kay."
