DOLE APPLAUDS CHOICE TO HEAD PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON AIDS

WASHINGTON -- SENATE REPUBLICAN LEADER BOB DOLE (R-KS.) TODAY APPLAUDED PRESIDENT REAGAN'S CHOICE OF DR. WILLIAM E. "GENE" MAYBERRY TO HEAD THE PRESIDENT'S COMMISSION ON ACQUIRED IMMUNE DEFICIENCY SYNDROME (AIDS). DR. MAYBERRY IS CURRENTLY THE CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES AT THE MAYO FOUNDATION, BOARD CERTIFIED IN INTERNAL MEDICINE AND ENDOCRINOLOGY, AND A MEMBER OF THE INSTITUTE OF MEDICINE.

"The President has chosen carefully and wisely, a man of great credibility. Dr. Mayberry demonstrates the skills and criteria most necessary for this critical job: respect by his peers and experience as a scientist, care giver, and administrator. His added experience in the world of business and insurance simply serve to strengthen his broad base of experience," Dole concluded.
