CONGRESS APPROVES HIGHWAY BILL;
DOLE'S KANSAS INITIATIVES INCLUDE $7.56 MILLION FOR OVERLAND
PARK, SALINA, AND SOUTHEAST KANSAS PROJECTS

WASHINGTON - Funding for the construction of three major Kansas highway projects backed by Senator Bob Dole (R-Ks) won final Congressional approval today as the Senate passed the conference report to the FY92 Transportation Appropriations bill. The Dole projects include $7.6 million in funding for an interchange at I-435 and Nall Avenue in Overland Park, an interchange at I-135 and Magnolia Road in Salina, and a five-mile highway addition to the Southeast Kansas Corridor route. The measure will now be sent to President Bush for his signature.

"I'm pleased that these worthwhile projects have received full Congressional support. These are top priority highway initiatives which will improve our state's infrastructure, and enhance economic vitality," said Dole.

The Dole projects included in the bill are:

I-435 AND NALL AVENUE, OVERLAND PARK -- $3.6 MILLION

$3.6 million to fund the construction of a split diamond interchange at I-435 and Nall Avenue. Total cost of the project is $20,246,000.

I-35 AND MAGNOLIA ROAD, SALINA -- $2.584 MILLION

$2.584 million for an interchange at I-135 and Magnolia Road. Total cost of the project is $4,132,000.

SOUTHEAST KANSAS CORRIDOR ROUTE, RIVERTON, KS -- $1.376 MILLION

$1.376 million for preliminary engineering and right-of-way purchase for a five mile highway connecting Riverton, Kansas, to I-44 in Missouri, as part of the Southeast Kansas Corridor route. When completed, the route will provide two-lane roads between Wichita, Ks, and Joplin, Mo. Total cost of the five mile stretch project is $27,630,000.
