DOLE PRAISES STEVENS FOR ROLE IN PASSAGE OF LINE ITEM VETO

WASHINGTON -- Senate Majority Leader Bob Dole today credited Senator Ted Stevens (R-Alaska) for his role in the successful passage of the line item veto in the Senate.

"No doubt about it, Senator Ted Stevens was a key player in the success of the line item veto in the Senate." Dole said. "During the past several weeks, he worked hard to help bring his colleagues together. This was a bipartisan victory the American people can be proud of, and Ted Stevens played a big part in it."

Prior to final passage of the bill Thursday night, Dole also praised Senator Stevens on the Senate floor for helping mold the final line item veto package.
