TO: SENATOR DOLE

FROM: DENNIS SHEA

SUBJECT: RABBI BALKANY -- RELIGIOUS ISSUES OVERSIGHT BOARD

As you know, Sen. Helms offered an amendment to the Commerce, Justice, State, and Judiciary Appropriations bill that provides for the creation of a Religious Issues Oversight Board (the "Board"). The amendment was cleared by Senators Hollings and Rudman and was agreed to without debate.

Justice Department Problems

As Sen. Rudman explained on the floor, the Justice Department has a number of concerns about the Helms amendment. These concerns include the following:

1. Religious grievances of federal inmates are already adequately addressed by the Bureau of Prisons. Consequently, the establishment of the Board is unnecessary.
2. The Helms amendment requires the Justice Department to reimburse the per diem expenses of the Board, but there is no current Justice Department appropriation authorization for these reimbursements.

The Justice Department is currently preparing a letter to the conferees urging them to drop the Helms amendment. I understand that the Director of the Bureau of Prisons also strongly opposes the Helms amendment.

Revisions to the Helms Amendment

1. In its original form, the Helms amendment provided that Board decisions were only appealable to the President. The Helms amendment, however, was revised to allow the Director of the Bureau of Prisons to overturn Board decisions.

2. The Helms amendment was also revised to prohibit the Board from making any decision that would result in the temporary or permanent release of federal inmates.

Conversation with Carol Crawford

Carol Crawford, Assistant Attorney General for Legislative Affairs, told me that Rabbi Balkany -- through the efforts of Sen. Humphrey -- had contacted the Justice Department last year on behalf of a Rabbi Gurary. Rabbi Gurary, who has been convicted of fraud, is currently serving time in federal prison in Rochester, Minnesota. Balkany believed that the prison authorities in Rochester were not adequately responding to the religious requests made by Rabbi Gurary.

Race, religion enter NY election

By Gary Langer

Associated Press

NEW YORK — Mayoral candidate Rudolph Giuliani has ignited the flash powder of city politics, flaring racial and religious tension as he struggles to wrest Jewish voters from his black Democratic opponent.

While Giuliani's first-time candidacy has been dogged by missteps, the latest controversy is heightened by his unabashed intent to win Jewish votes by linking his opponent, David Dinkins, with Jesse Jackson.

"It is a naked effort to play on Jewish fears," Rabbi Balfour Brickner, a liberal Jewish leader, said Friday. "The net effect of what he's doing is to increase racial polarization. It's a contemptible low blow."

At issue is an advertisement placed by Giuliani in last week's edition of the city's largest-circulation Yiddish newspaper, The Algemeiner Journal. It shows two photos: In one, Giuliani, a Republican, with President Bush; in the other, Dinkins, the Manhattan borough president, with Jackson.

The text says: "Let the people of New York choose their own destiny."

The ad intensified a rift in the city's Jewish community, which made up the largest proportion of white voters for Dinkins in the Sept. 12 primary, when he unseated three-term incumbent Mayor Edward Koch.

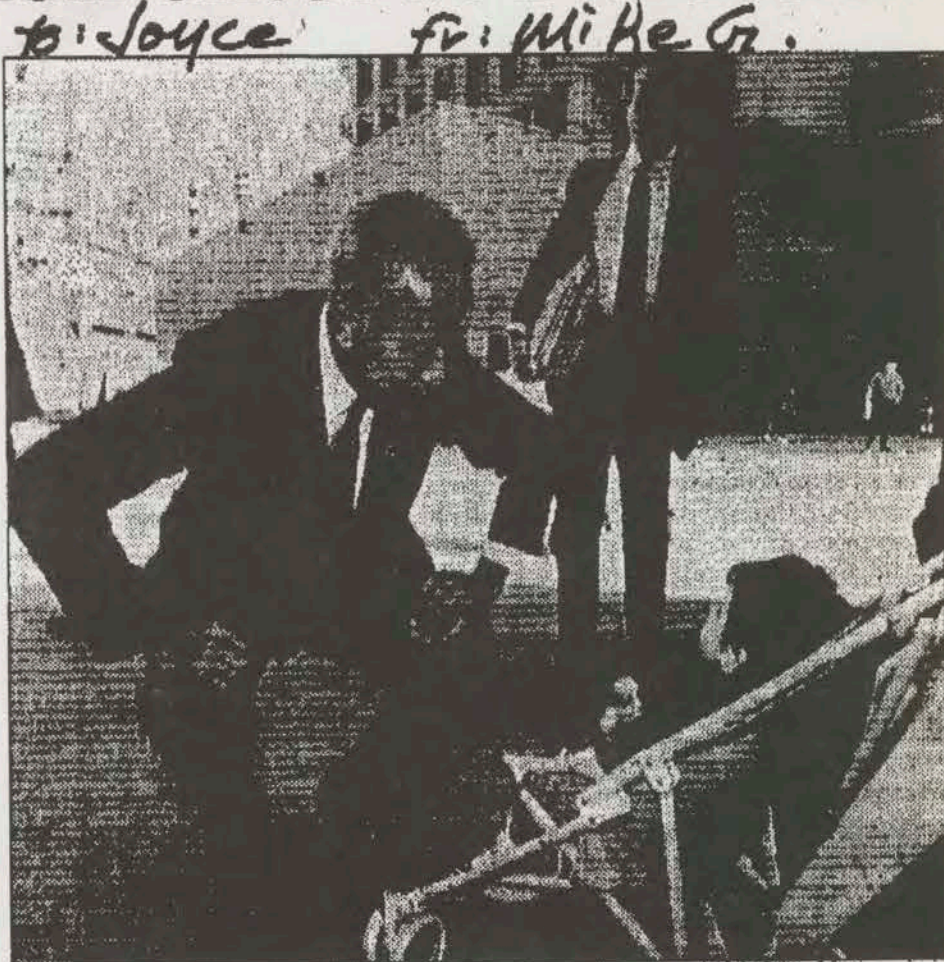

On one side are critics such as Brickner, who said the ad plays unfairly on Jewish suspicions of Jackson, who supports Palestinian self-determination and once called New York "Hymietown," for which he later apologized.

Giuliani "suspects that Jews hate Jesse Jackson and he's playing on that hatred and that fear," said Brickner. Dinkins, he noted, has a history of supporting Israel, Soviet Jewry and other Jewish causes.

Yet others, such as Eli Blachman, associate editor of The Algemeiner Journal, called the ad fair play. "It shows who Giuliani's surrounded with and who Dinkins is surrounded with," he said. "There's no words of racism. It just says the people have to decide."

According to polls, 22 percent of New York City's 3 million registered voters are black and 18 percent are Jewish. Of the total, about 2 million are Democrats.

The message came at a moment of heightened sensitivity. Racial tensions arose in New York in August after a white gang killed a black youth in Bensonhurst, Brooklyn — a killing reminiscent of a 1986 racial attack in Howard Beach, Queens.

Associated Press

New York City Democratic mayoral candidate David Dinkins talks to a youngster in Manhattan on Friday. His opponent, Rudolph Giuliani, has tried to ignite the campaign by linking Dinkins with some of Jesse Jackson's controversial remarks.

Then Jewish comedian Jackie Mason, a Giuliani supporter, suggested in an interview published last week that Jews were supporting Dinkins as a result of Jewish "complexes," and said blacks had rarely backed Jewish causes.

The Jewish Community Relations Council demanded repudiation of those remarks, saying the election "should not be dragged into the gutter," and the Giuliani campaign dropped Mason. The comedian apologized Thursday.

The council, an umbrella group of Jewish organizations, did not directly criticize the Giuliani advertisement. Among Jews, "some consider it to be legitimate and some consider it to be illegitimate," said Michael Miller, the council's director. "It raises a lot of emotions."

Properly or not, Miller said, Giuliani has raised a double-edged sword, risking alienating some Jews while he attracts those who fear Jackson's role in a Dinkins mayoralty. "The Jewish community is not a monolith," he said.

Some analysts said the ad marked a necessary, if risky, step for Giuliani, who trails Dinkins by more than 20 percentage points in the polls and must overcome a 5-1 Democratic edge in voter enrollment to win on Nov. 7.

"Giuliani doesn't have the Jewish vote and he wants it," said Brickner. "He thinks he needs it to win, and he's right. He's reaching out to the Jewish vote, grasping at it with every gimmick and tool he can use."

Giuliani's strategists defended the approach.

"This ad has absolutely nothing to do with race. It has to do with who are the political supporters of the candidates," said Ken Caruso, Giuliani's deputy campaign manager.

Dinkins was state co-chairman of Jackson's 1988 presidential campaign. Jackson campaigned in black neighborhoods for Dinkins, albeit sparingly, late in the primary race.

On Friday, Dinkins called Jackson "my friend," reiterated his support for Israel and said of Giuliani's ad: "I know what he's trying to do. I'd prefer that people would say and do things designed to bring people together, rather than divide them."

JACK STEIN MEETING

General approach. Don't be defensive.

- o I KNOW THERE ARE SOME CONCERNS ABOUT SOME OF MY COMMENTS. I WANT TO CLEAR THE AIR.
- o I'VE ALWAYS BEEN A STRONG SUPPORTER OF ISRAEL; I STILL AM; I WILL CONTINUE TO BE.
- o MAYBE WE DISAGREE ON SOME ISSUES; THAT'S WHAT FRIENDS SOMETIMES DO. I'LL BE HAPPY TO ADDRESS THEM.
- o LET'S ALL KEEP OUR EYE ON THE BALL.
 - o ISRAEL AND THE U.S. ARE IN THIS TOGETHER; WE CAN'T AFFORD TO LET ANYTHING DIVIDE US.
 - o WE -- ISRAEL'S FRIENDS IN THE U.S. -- CAN'T AFFORD TO GET HUNG UP ON THE PAST OR FIGHTING AMONG OURSELVES. THERE'S TOO MUCH IMPORTANT ON OUR CURRENT AGENDA.

Meetings. I'm sure there will be occasions to mention your recent meetings with (1) Shamir, (2) Nathanyahu (Deputy Foreign Minister -- Likud) and (3) Peres.

Dole support for Israel. Key elements:

- o CONSISTENT SUPPORT FOR MAINTAINING ISRAEL AS LARGEST AID RECIPIENT.
- o U.S.-ISRAEL FREE TRADE TREATY.
- o IN SPEECH TWO YEARS AGO, CALL FOR CLOSER STRATEGIC RELATIONSHIP.
 - o NATHANYAHU PRAISED THAT SPEECH, AS AN IMPORTANT SPUR TO REAL CHANGE TOWARD CLOSER STRATEGIC COOPERATION WE HAVE SEEN IN LAST TWO YEARS.
- o GENOCIDE CONVENTION.
- o WORK FOR HOLOCAUST MEMORIAL COUNCIL.
- o STRONG STAND ON MIDDLE EAST PEACE ISSUES.

Intifada. You will not want to back away from your basic view.

o WHAT WE SEE ON TV IS HAVING AN IMPACT. I DON'T LIKE IT, IT MAY NOT BE ACCURATE OR FAIR -- BUT IT IS A FACT. AS A FRIEND OF ISRAEL, IT WORRIES ME.

o I'VE TOLD THAT DIRECTLY TO SHAMIR, NATHANYAHU, PERES.

o I SAY IT TO YOU. BECAUSE THOSE OF US WHO SUPPORT ISRAEL MUST BE AWARE OF IT. IT IS IN OUR INTEREST -- ISRAEL'S INTEREST -- TO UNDERSTAND WHAT IS HAPPENING, SO WE CAN DEAL REALISTICALLY WITH IT.

o I'M HOPING TO GO TO ISRAEL SOON, TO SEE FOR MYSELF.

Obeid/Higgins. The key points to make:

o MY WHOLE PUBLIC RECORD IS ONE OF STRONG SUPPORT FOR ISRAEL -- NOT BASED ON POLITICAL EXPEDIENCY, BUT CONVICTION.

-- I'VE EARNED THE RIGHT TO HAVE MY VIEWS CONSIDERED AND RESPONDED TO FAIRLY, EVEN WHEN PEOPLE DON'T AGREE.

o ONE OF THE HALLMARKS OF A CLOSE FRIENDSHIP IS THAT THE PARTIES CAN DISAGREE, WITHOUT CALLING INTO QUESTION THE ESSENTIALS OF THE RELATIONSHIP.

o INITIAL MEDIA REPORTS DIDN'T REFLECT THE FULL FLAVOR OF MY COMMENTS. SPECIFICALLY:

-- RESPONSIBILITY FOR HIGGINS' DEATH RESTS WITH TERRORISTS -- NO ONE ELSE.

-- I ADMIRE ISRAEL'S RECORD OF TAKING FIRM ACTION AGAINST TERRORISTS -- THAT HAS NEVER BEEN THE POINT OF MY CONCERN.

o BUT I STILL DO BELIEVE ISRAEL UNDERTOOK THIS ACTION WITHOUT DUE REGARD FOR AMERICAN INTERESTS, OR THE IMPACT IN THE U.S. (see next section).

o ONE PERSONAL POINT: I WAS PURSUING AN INITIATIVE WITH MAJOR ROBIN HIGGINS, WHICH OFFERED SOME HOPE OF DETERMINING HIS WHEREABOUTS AND CONDITION; A PRIVATE "MESSENGER" TO INVOLVED PARTIES WAS SCHEDULED TO DEPART FOR THE MIDDLE EAST ON THE DAY THE OBEID ABDUCTION OCCURRED.

Coordination/consultation.

o I DO NOT BELIEVE, AND HAVE NEVER SAID, THAT ISRAEL SHOULD COORDINATE WITH, CONSULT WITH, OR NOTIFY THE U.S. WHENEVER IT IS CONTEMPLATING ACTION IN ITS OWN NATIONAL DEFENSE.

o ISRAEL HAS NO RIGHT TO EXPECT THAT OF THE U.S., EITHER.

o THERE ARE TIMES WHEN EACH OF US MUST ACT, WITHOUT THE FINGERPRINTS OF THE OTHER ON OUR ACTIONS.

o BUT EACH SIDE HAS THE RESPONSIBILITY TO TAKE EACH OTHER'S VITAL INTERESTS INTO ACCOUNT. AND I DO BELIEVE THAT -- EXCEPT IN EXTRAORDINARY CIRCUMSTANCES -- THERE IS A RESPONSIBILITY TO COORDINATE, CONSULT OR AT LEAST NOTIFY, WHEN:

-- THE ACTIONS OF ONE SIDE CAN REASONABLY BE EXPECTED TO IMPACT ON THE VITAL INTERESTS, OR THREATEN THE LIVES OF THE CITIZENS OF, THE OTHER COUNTRY.

o I THINK IT IS A FAIR QUESTION: WHAT WOULD THE REACTION HAVE BEEN IN ISRAEL IF THE U.S. -- WITHOUT ANY CONSULTATION WITH ISRAEL -- HAD LAUNCHED A MISSION TO RESCUE HIGGINS, HAD GOTTEN HIM OUT, BUT IN THE PROCESS THE ISRAELI PRISONERS HAD BEEN EXECUTED?

Mubarak peace plan. The points are attached. The group will probably have mixed reactions, depending on which faction of the Israeli Government they sympathize with -- though most American Jews lean toward the Labor/Peres approach. Mubarak and Shamir have now agreed to their own "summit" -- suggesting Shamir may be amenable to tempering his rejection of the Mubarak initiative.

o WE OUGHT TO KEEP OUR EYE ON THE BALL: FOR THE FIRST TIME, THERE IS SERIOUS ARAB/PALESTINIAN CONSIDERATION OF AN ISRAELI PEACE INITIATIVE -- AND A LIKUD INITIATIVE AT THAT.

o IF THE MUBARAK PLAN -- WHICH DOESN'T REJECT SHAMIR'S APPROACH -- CAN BE A BRIDGE TO BRING THE ISRAELIS AND REASONABLE ARABS/PALESTINIANS CLOSER TO DIALOGUE, THAT'S A GOOD THING.

o MUBARAK HAS SPECIFICALLY SAID THAT HIS POINTS CAN BE TAKEN AS AN OPENING POSITION FOR THE PALESTINIAN SIDE, AND NEEDN'T BE ACCEPTED BY ISRAEL IN ADVANCE.

o IT IS CERTAINLY NOT IN THE U.S. INTEREST TO "SHOOT DOWN" THE MUBARAK PLAN.

Arafat visa. No hint yet of what the Administration will do if Arafat applies. A question will certainly be phrased along the line: you opposed a visa last year, the PLO may say it renounces terrorism but continues to practice it, so why don't you oppose it this year?

o NO ONE I KNOW HAS ANY BRIEF FOR ARAFAT. PERSONALLY, I CAN'T SEE MUCH BENEFIT OF GIVING HIM A U.N. PLATFORM.

o BUT, REALISTICALLY, THERE HAS BEEN SOME CHANGE IN THE POLITICAL ENVIRONMENT. I'M STILL NOT SURE THE ORIGINAL DECISION TO BEGIN A DIALOGUE WAS TIMED QUITE RIGHT -- BUT IT'S NOW A FACT. IT'S NOT GOING TO BE UN-DONE.

o THAT PUTS THE ADMINISTRATION IN A TOUGH POSITION, IF ARAFAT APPLIES. AS THE PRESIDENT'S LEADER IN THE SENATE, I DON'T WANT TO MAKE THE CALL EVEN TOUGHER FOR HIM.

o WE NEED TO LAY DOWN THE MARKER IN OUR DIALOGUE: WE ARE NOT GOING TO GO FORWARD, OPEN-ENDED, WHILE THE PLO CONTINUES TO ENGAGE IN TERRORISM.

Jackson-Vanik. We have been finessing this one -- not specifically going beyond the Administration's line that codification is necessary before a waiver, but speaking very sympathetically of the desire to go forward as soon as possible. Happily, codification is expected before the end of the year. This group probably has mixed feelings on this issue.

o WE OUGHT TO BE CELEBRATING -- NOT ARGUING. OUR POLICY HAS WORKED -- SOVIET JEWS ARE BEING ALLOWED TO EMIGRATE IN RECORD NUMBERS. I SEE NO SIGNS THAT GORBACHEV WILL REVERSE THAT POLICY -- WHETHER OR NOT WE GIVE A WAIVER NOW, OR WAIT A FEW MONTHS.

- o GORBACHEV APPEARS TO BE RIDING HIGH, BUT HE'S GOT SOME EXTREMELY TOUGH PROBLEMS -- THE ECONOMY, NATIONALITIES ISSUES, ETC. HISTORY SHOWS -- YOU NEVER KNOW WHEN THAT PENDULUM WILL SWING BACK.
- o SO I THINK IT'S PRUDENT TO GET ALL THE INSURANCE WE CAN -- SUCH AS WAITING FOR CODIFICATION.
- o IT LOOKS LIKE THAT MIGHT HAPPEN THIS YEAR. I EXPECT THE PRESIDENT WILL THEN REQUEST A WAIVER. I WILL SUPPORT IT.

U.S. policy on processing Soviet Jews. To handle the numbers, who are now overwhelming our system, the Administration has (1) set an annual ceiling at 50,000 (by far the largest "earmark" in the system), and (2) plans to start doing all processing in Moscow this fall -- rather than in Italy or elsewhere (with the net result that far more emigrants will end up in Israel, rather than the U.S.). Although the Administration worked closely with mainstream Jewish American groups in formulating its policy, there has been some criticism on both parts of the policy -- on (1), just because, now that Gorbachev is finally letting them all out, we are not going to be able to process them; and on (2), can we set up the Moscow processing system so quickly, and do we really want the great majority to end up in Israel (the group will likely be divided on that issue).

- o THE ADMINISTRATION HAS RESPONDED RESPONSIBLY TO A TOUGH SITUATION -- WHERE WE WERE BEING OVERWHELMED BY THE VERY SUCCESS OF OUR POLICY.
- o REALISTICALLY, I DON'T THINK THE ANNUAL NUMBER CAN BE RAISED MUCH MORE -- WITHOUT DISADVANTAGING OTHER WORTHY GROUPS.
- o LEGITIMATE CONCERN HAS BEEN RAISED ABOUT THE SPEED WITH WHICH THE ADMINISTRATION IS CHANGING GEARS ON PROCESSING; ARE WE REALLY READY TO DO ALL THE PROCESSING IN MOSCOW? I HOPE THE ADMINISTRATION WILL BE FLEXIBLE ON THAT.
- o I UNDERSTAND THE ADMINISTRATION HAS COMMITTED THAT NO ONE WILL GET LEFT STRANDED IN ROME.

o IT WAS CLEAR FROM MY RECENT MEETING WITH PERES THAT ISRAEL FEELS A REAL RESPONSIBILITY TO ACCEPT ALL WHO WANT TO COME, NO MATTER WHAT SACRIFICE IS REQUIRED.

o IN PRINCIPLE, I'D LIKE TO BE SUPPORTIVE OF A REQUEST TO HELP ISRAEL BEAR THAT BURDEN -- BUT IT IS GOING TO BE VERY TOUGH TO SQUEEZE ANY ADDITIONAL ON-BUDGET MONEY OUT OF OUR FOREIGN AID BUDGET.

Saudi tank sale. The Saudis want to purchase M1 tanks. AIPAC and company will oppose.

o IN THE LAST THREE OR FOUR YEARS, I'VE SPENT A LOT OF TIME WITH RUDY BOSCHWITZ, AND HOWARD METZENBAUM, AND ARLEN SPECTER, AND FRANK LAUTENBERG AND A LOT OF OTHERS -- TRYING TO WORK OUT THESE DEALS IN A WAY THAT (1) DIDN'T THREATEN ISRAEL'S SECURITY BUT (2) SERVED U.S. SECURITY INTERESTS.

-- IN ALMOST EVERY CASE, I THINK WE'VE FOUND A WAY TO DO THAT.

o I THINK WE CAN IN THIS CASE, TOO.

o I HOPE ALL OF US WILL KEEP TWO VERY IMPORTANT THINGS IN MIND:

(1) MOST OF THESE WEAPONS ARE READILY AVAILABLE FROM OTHER SUPPLIERS -- IT DOES ISRAEL NO GOOD WHEN ANOTHER SUPPLIER SELLS AN ARAB COUNTRY THE SAME KIND OF WEAPON, BUT WITH NO STRINGS ATTACHED.

(2) IT IS IN ISRAEL'S INTEREST, AS MUCH THE U.S. INTEREST, FOR US TO MAINTAIN GOOD RELATIONS WITH NATIONS LIKE EGYPT, SAUDI ARABIA AND JORDAN. LET'S FACE IT: THERE IS NEVER GOING TO BE AN ACCEPTABLE MIDDLE EAST PEACE UNLESS THEY COOPERATE.

Mubarak's ten points -- the ones checked cause Shamir/Likud the most heartburn.

MUBARAK'S 10 POINTS

- ✓ ■ The necessity for all citizens of the West Bank and Gaza Strip (including the residents of East Jerusalem) to participate in the elections, both in voting and as candidates. This allows for the participation of those under administrative detention, but excludes those convicted of crimes.
- Freedom to campaign before and during the elections.
- Acceptance of international supervision of the election process.
- Prior commitment of Israel's government to accept the results of the election.
- ✓ ■ Israel's commitment that the elections will be part of the effort that will lead not only to an interim phase, but also to a final settlement, and that all efforts from beginning to end will be based on the principles of U.N. resolutions 242 and 338 and will ensure the security of all the states of the region, including Israel, and Palestinian political rights. *
- Withdrawal of the Israeli army during the election process at least one kilometer outside the perimeters of the polling stations.
- Prohibition of Israelis from entering the West Bank and Gaza on election day, except those who work there and settlement residents.
- The preparatory period for elections should not exceed two months. Preparations shall be undertaken by a joint Israeli-Palestinian committee the United States and Egypt may assist in forming.
- ✓ ■ A guarantee by the United States of all the above points and a prior declaration to that effect by Israel.
- ✓ ■ A halt to further Jewish settlements.

SEN. BOB DOLE
GIULIANI NEWS AVAIL TALKING POINTS
NEW YORK - OCTOBER 2, 1989

JACKIE MASON

- o JACKIE MASON'S COMMENTS WERE INAPPROPRIATE AND IT WAS PROPER THAT HE LEFT THE CAMPAIGN.
- o JACKIE MASON COMES FROM THE WORLD OF SHOW BUSINESS -- THE WORLD OF COMEDY. HE SHOULD HAVE REALIZED THAT HIS "ACT" WOULD GET LOUSY REVIEWS WHEN HE STEPPED OFF THE STAGE.

JESSE JACKSON

- o THE ISSUE IS NOT RACE -- IT'S POLICIES. RUDY GIULIANI CAN'T IGNORE THE TOUGH ISSUES SIMPLY BECAUSE THEY MAY UPSET SOME PERSONS.
- o THE CAMPAIGN ADVERTISEMENT PICTURING DINKINS AND JACKSON IS NO DIFFERENT FROM DINKIN'S CONSTANT ASSOCIATION OF GIULIANI WITH RONALD REAGAN.
- o THE AD HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH RACE -- IT HAS TO DO WITH MR. DINKINS SUBSCRIPTION TO THE ULTRA-LIBERAL PHILOSOPHY OF JESSE JACKSON AND WHETHER THAT IS GOOD FOR THE CITY OF NEW YORK.
- o MR. DINKINS SAID HIMSELF HE IS PROUD TO BE A JESSE JACKSON DEMOCRAT. SO -- HOW CAN THE AD BE IN BAD TASTE. IT'S A DOUBLE STANDARD TO ALLOW DINKINS THE LEEWAY OF LABELING GIULIANI A "RONALD REAGAN REPUBLICAN" AND THEN CRITICIZE GIULIANI FOR ALIGNING DINKINS WITH JACKSON.
- o YOU CAN'T HAVE IT BOTH WAYS. THE DEMOCRATS CAN TRY, BUT RUDY IS TOO TOUGH AND THE PEOPLE KNOW IT.

THE MAIN ISSUES

- o CRIME AND DRUGS ARE THE NUMBER ONE PROBLEM FACING NEW YORK AND WILL BE THE NUMBER ONE PRIORITY FOR A GIULIANI ADMINISTRATION.

CRIME

- o AS U.S. ATTORNEY FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK FROM 1983 TO 1989, RUDY GIULIANI LED THE CHARGE TO LASSO THE DRUG DEALERS, EXTERMINATE ORGANIZED CRIME AND TEAR APART THE WEB OF CORRUPTION IN CITY GOVERNMENT.
- o RUDY GIULIANI DIDN'T STOP ON THE STREETS -- HE TOOK HIS FIGHT INSIDE THE OFFICE TOWERS AND TACKLED THE COMPLICATED CASES OF WHITE COLLAR CRIME -- INSIDER TRADING, TAX EVASION AND SO FORTH.
- o RUDY GIULIANI BROUGHT HUNDREDS OF CASES AGAINST CORRUPT PUBLIC OFFICIALS -- INCLUDING THE WEDTECH CORP. AND THE NEW YORK PARKING VIOLATIONS BUREAU.
- o IN THE AREA OF WHITE COLLAR CRIME RUDY GIULIANI BROUGHT PRECEDENT-SETTING CHARGES AGAINST IVAN BOESKY -- DENNIS LEVINE -- AND DREXEL BURNHAM LAMBERT & CO.
- o HE BROUGHT THE FOUR LARGEST TAX EVASION CASES IN UNITED STATES HISTORY.

DRUGS

- o HE PUSHED THE FEDERAL BUREAUCRACY SO THAT MORE FEDERAL AGENTS WERE AVAILABLE FOR FIGHTING STREET-LEVEL DRUG ACTIVITIES IN PLACES LIKE THE LOWER EAST SIDE.

- GIULIANI HAS OFFERED A BLUEPRINT FOR EFFECTIVE ANTI-DRUG EDUCATION -- INCLUDING A COMPREHENSIVE THREE-PART PLAN OF ACTION AGAINST DRUGS AND DRUG USE -- (1) DRUG ENFORCEMENT, (2) ANTI-DRUG EDUCATION, AND (3) DRUG TREATMENT.
- HE BELIEVES DRUG ABUSE MUST BE ADDRESSED IN EVERY SCHOOL , IN EVERY GRADE -- FROM THE FIRST DAY A CHILD WALKS INTO KINDERGARTEN.
- OUT OF A 6-BILLION DOLLAR BUDGET THE NEW YORK CITY BOARD OF EDUCATION WILL ALLOT ONLY 30-MILLION DOLLARS -- ONE-HALF OF ONE PERCENT -- FOR ANTI-DRUG EDUCATION. AND OF THIS SUM -- 75-PERCENT COMES FROM THE STATE AND FEDERAL GOVERNMENTS. THE CITY MUST MAKE MORE OF A COMMITMENT.
- GIULIANI BELIEVES THE NEW YORK SCHOOLS AREN'T DOING ENOUGH. THEY NEED MORE FUNDING, LONGER HOURS OF INSTRUCTION, MORE WELL-TRAINED COUNSELORS, AND MORE TREATMENT SLOTS FOR ADOLESCENT DRUG ABUSERS.
- RUDY GIULIANI KNOWS EFFECTIVE DRUG EDUCATION WORKS AND CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE. NEW YORK MUST LEARN FROM THE EXAMPLES OF OTHER STATES AND COMMUNITIES WHERE SUCCESSFUL PROGRAMS HAVE CUT DRUG USE.
- GIULIANI BELIEVES BUSINESS CAN PLAY A ROLE IN THE WAR ON DRUGS. BUSINESS MUST BECOME INVOLVED -- IN THE SCHOOLS -- IN THE WORKPLACE -- IN THE DRUG EDUCATION EFFORT.
- TODAY'S STUDENTS ARE TOMORROW'S EMPLOYEES. SO IT MAKES ECONOMIC SENSE FOR BUSINESS TO BECOME INVOLVED.

RUDY GIULIANI - STRONG LEADERSHIP ON DRUGS

- AS MAYOR -- RUDY GIULIANI WILL TAKE CHARGE -- PLANNING AND IMPLEMENTING A PRACTICAL AND COMPREHENSIVE DRUG EDUCATION PLAN FOR NEW YORK CITY SCHOOLS THAT STARTS THE DAY A CHILD ENTERS SCHOOL AND CONTINUES UNTIL HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATION.
- HE WILL DECLARE EMERGENCY DRUG-FREE ZONES EXTENDING THREE BLOCKS AROUND EACH SCHOOL BUILDING AND WILL DIRECT NEW YORK POLICE TO REMOVE FROM THE ZONES ANY PERSON REASONABLY SUSPECTED OF DRUG TRAFFICKING.
- HE WILL ENLIST NEW YORK'S BROADCAST AND PRINT MEDIA -- AND ADVERTISING FIRMS -- IN A COOPERATIVE EFFORT TO GET THE ANTI-DRUG MESSAGE OUT TO OUR YOUTH.

CAPITOL PUNISHMENT

- RUDY GIULIANI SUPPORTS THE DEATH PENALTY FOR MURDER AND AGGRAVATED TREASON. BUT THE DEATH PENALTY ALONE WON'T SOLVE NEW YORK'S CRIME AND DRUG PROBLEMS.
- EFFECTIVENESS MUST BE RETURNED TO THE CRIMINAL JUSTICE SYSTEM. ADD RESOURCES -- AND IMPROVE MANAGEMENT.

ABORTION

- RUDY GIULIANI WILL UPHOLD A WOMAN'S RIGHT OF CHOICE TO HAVE AN ABORTION. HE IS PERSONALLY OPPOSED TO ABORTION BUT WON'T LET THOSE VIEWS INTERFERE WITH HIS RESPONSIBILITIES AS MAYOR.

RACE RELATIONS

- o RUDY GIULIANI HAS GONE BEYOND WORDS AND TAKEN ACTION. HE HAS ACTED AGAINST NAZI MURDERERS OF YESTERDAY'S EUROPE AND TERRORIST MURDERERS OF TODAY'S MIDDLE EAST.
- o IN 1986 HE PERSONALLY ARGUED THE GOVERNMENT'S CASE WHICH STRIPPED NAZI WAR CRIMINAL KARL LINNAS OF HIS CITIZENSHIP AND DEPORTED HIM TO THE SOVIET UNION.
- o HE PERSONALLY ARGUED THE CASE TO CLOSE DOWN THE PLO OFFICE AT THE UNITED NATIONS.

WOMEN'S ISSUES

- o RUDY GIULIANI HAS FOUGHT FOR JUSTICE IN THE COURTROOM. AS MAYOR HE WILL GO BEYOND THE COURTROOM AND STRIVE TO ACHIEVE SOCIAL JUSTICE AND KNOCK DOWN BARRIERS TO EQUALITY FOR NEW YORK WOMEN AND ALL NEW YORKERS.
- o HE WILL ACTIVELY RECRUIT WOMEN TO ALL LEVELS OF HIS ADMINISTRATION
- o RUDY GIULIANI WILL SUPPORT ADOPTION OF THE EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT.
- o ALTHOUGH HE IS PERSONALLY OPPOSED TO ABORTION, RUDY GIULIANI SUPPORTS A WOMAN'S RIGHT TO CHOOSE. HE SUPPORTS PUBLIC FUNDING FOR ABORTION FOR LOW-INCOME WOMEN AND IS OPPOSED TO THE HYDE AMENDMENT THAT RESTRICTS FEDERAL MEDICAID FUNDING.
- o RUDY GIULAINI WILL WORK TO BREAK THE DESTRUCTIVE CYCLE OF TEEN PREGNANCY BY INTENSIFYING THE CITY'S EFFORTS TO PROVIDE EDUCATION TO YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN SO THEY CAN MAKE INFORMED CHOICES ABOUT PREGNANCY AND THEIR FUTURES.

HOUSING

- RUDY GIULIANI WILL SPEED THE CLOSING OF NEW YORK'S WELFARE HOTELS AND WORK TO PROVIDE PERMANENT HOUSING FOR HOMELESS WOMEN AND THEIR FAMILIES.
- HE SUPPORTS GOVERNMENT-FINANCED SUPPORT SERVICES TO EASE THE TRANSITION FROM HOMELESSNESS -- INCLUDING COUNSELING, JOB TRAINING AND CHILD CARE.

MEMORANDUM FOR THE LEADER

FROM: JUDY BIVIANO JB
SUBJECT: NOEL KOCH AND TOM SYNHORST

1. As you know, Noel Koch was not among the President's appointees to the Commission on Aviation Security and Terrorism. The Membership is outlined in the attached press release from the White House, in the event Koch wishes to know more about the President's choices.
2. During your private meeting with Rudy Giuliani, it might be nice to again put in a "good word" on Tom Synhorst's behalf.

Keith Schraad reports that Synhorst's meeting went well with the Giuliani people, but they informed Tom that they're concerned about the spending cap in New York and will be coming to a decision shortly on how to best allocate their resources between media and telemarketing. Keith said that Tom indicated that if Giuliani decides to go with telemarketing, their firm would have a "good shot" at receiving a contract.

Thanks.
