Quentin Burdick

June 19, 1908 - September 8, 1992

"I've tried to respond to the needs of the ordinary person. Mostly poor people. And I think my record will bear that out."

Burdick on Burdick*

On entering politics

"I had a plan when I started in politics: Here's a block of farmers. Then I did a lot of work in the courtroom for the labor guys. Then I worked for the senior citizens. We cracked quite a nut in North Dakota (getting elected as a Democrat). Remember, this is a Republican state. The key to my success was the people. They count. John Doe has just as big a vote as Smith, chairman of the board."

On his frugality

"How can you begin the practice of law and get into business in the very depth of the Depression and not be frugal? You can't. There is where you are branded — right there."

On his rumpled looks

"If you think my ties are dirty, you should have seen his!"
(Burdick comparing himself to his father)

On free time

"Free time — what's that? I like to tinker with building things — hammer and saw. I like cleaning the furnace. I like to play around with my hands."

On senators making long speeches

"They do a lot speaking. Lot of talking. More than I would. I want to gather up the votes. I don't care about the speeches. I'm a workhorse, not a showhorse."

On aging

"I think the best way to approach aging is not to think about it. Be interested in whatever you are doing and stay there."

*From interviews with writer/historian Dan Rylance

Quentin Northrop Burdick was born in Munich, North Dakota, in 1908 and moved to Williston at age 2. He grew up breaking wild ponies on the family ranch. He captained Williston High School's undefeated football team and then played for the University of Minnesota, where he blocked for future Hall-of-Famer Bronko Nagurski. Between games he earned a law degree.

Upon graduating in 1932, he joined his father, Usher, a future U.S. congressman, in the practice of law. During the Depression, Burdick worked with the Farmers Union to defend and advise farmers threatened with foreclosure.

He joined the new Non-Partisan League, a populist-progressive group allied with the Republicans, and lost several races for local and statewide offices. Believing NPLers had no future in the Republican column, Burdick joined the Democrats. The NPL followed him into the Democratic Party in 1956.

Burdick lost six elections before he was elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1958, becoming the first Democrat North Dakota sent to Washington. On June 28, 1960, he won a special election to fill the unexpired term of the late Sen. William Langer. He was re-elected in 1964, 1970, 1976, 1982, and 1988.

In 1987, Burdick became chairman of the Senate Environment and Public Works Committee. He also chaired the Appropriations Sub-committee on Agriculture. He formed and co-chaired the Senate Rural Health Caucus and served on the Special Committee on Aging and the Select Committee on Indian Affairs.

In 1933, Burdick married Marietta Janecky, who died in 1958. They had four children, Jonathan, Jan Mary, Jennifer, and Jessica. In 1960, Burdick married Jocelyn Birch Peterson, a widow with two children, Leslie and Birch. Their son, Gage, is deceased.

MRS. BURDICK AND FAMILY,
REVEREND STONE, SENATE
COLLEAGUES, FRIENDS:

I'VE BEEN IN NORTH DAKOTA
MANY TIMES OVER THE PAST
YEARS, AND EVERY TIME, I AM
REMINDED OF THE SIMILARITIES BETWEEN NORTH DAKOTA AND KANSAS.

THE FARMS...THE SMALL BUSINESSES...HARD WORKING
MEN AND WOMEN WHOSE WORD
IS THEIR BOND...THIS IS WHAT
NORTH DAKOTA AND KANSAS
ARE ALL ABOUT. AND IT'S WHAT
SENATOR QUENTIN BURDICK WAS ALL ABOUT.

REVEREND STONE READ FROM THE SCRIPTURES TODAY

ABOUT "WALKING HUMBLY WITH GOD."

DESPITE THE FACT THAT SENATOR BURDICK SERVED IN THE SENATE LONGER THAN ALL BUT TWENTY PEOPLE IN AMERICA'S HISTORY, HE ALWAYS "WALKED HUMBLY."

HE NEVER TOOK HIMSELF TOO SERIOUSLY, AND HE

ALWAYS HAD TIME FOR A FRIENDLY WORD, OR TO SHARE
A LAUGH.

IT IS HARD TO IMAGINE THE SENATE WITHOUT HIM.

WHEN I CAME TO THE SENATE, MY PREDECESSOR,
SENATOR FRANK CARLSON,
GAVE ME MUCH-NEEDED
ADVICE. HE TOLD ME OF THE

DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE
HOUSE AND THE SENATE. AND WHICH SENATORS I COULD LEARN FROM AND WORK WITH.
AND HIGH ON HIS LIST WAS QUENTIN BURDICK. HE WAS RIGHT.

AS YOU KNOW, IN THE 1960'S
AND 70'S, NORTH DAKOTA'S
SENATORS WERE MILTON

YOUNG AND QUENTIN BURDICK.

I OFTEN THOUGHT HOW IMPRESSIVE IT WAS THAT A
SMALL STATE LIKE NORTH DAKOTA WAS REPRESENTED BY TWO SENIOR, POWERFUL, AND RESPECTED SENATORS-- SENATORS WHO NEVER LET
PARTISANSHIP GET IN THE WAY OF DOING WHAT WAS BEST FOR

NORTH DAKOTA.

OTHERS IN THE SENATE MAY HAVE HAVE RECEIVED MORE
PUBLICITY THAN SENATOR
BURDICK, BUT THAT WASN'T IMPORTANT TO HIM.

WHAT WAS IMPORTANT WAS
THE PEOPLE WHO ARE HERE
TODAY...THE PEOPLE OF NORTH DAKOTA.

SENATOR BURDICK NEVER TIRED OF FIGHTING FOR THE INTERESTS OF NORTH DAKOTA.
HE WAS A CHAMPION OF NORTH
DAKOTA'S AND AMERICA'S FARM FAMILIES.

HE WAS ALSO ONE OF THE FIRST TO RECOGNIZE THE PROBLEMS OF HEALTH CARE
DELIVERY TO SMALL TOWNS.

HIS COMMITMENT LED HIM TO ORGANIZE THE SENATE RURAL HEALTH CAUCUS, WHICH IS STILL MAKING A DIFFERENCE
TODAY.

AND I SUSPECT THAT IN ALMOST EVERY COMMUNITY IN THIS STATE, YOU CAN FIND A
PROJECT...A HIGHWAY...A
COURTHOUSE...A HOSPITAL...A

DAM...AN AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH STATION...THAT WAS BUILT OR IMPROVED ONLY
BECAUSE SENATOR BURDICK
MADE SURE THAT NORTH
DAKOTA RECEIVED ITS FAIR SHARE.

IN FACT, ONE OF HIS LAST PROJECTS--A NEW FEDERAL COURTHOUSE FOR FARGO--IS

CURRENTLY MOVING THROUGH THE SENATE. AND THIS WEEK,
WE APPROVED LEGISLATION CO-
SPONSORED BY EVERY MEMBER OF THE SENATE, WHICH SAYS THAT THIS COURTHOUSE WILL BEAR SENATOR BURDICK'S
NAME.

LIKE THE KANSAS WINTERS, THE NORTH DAKOTA WINTERS

ARE SOMETIMES LONG AND BITTER. AND PERHAPS IT WAS THOSE WINTERS THAT
PREPARED QUENTIN BURDICK
FOR A LIFE IN POLITICS.

AS YOU MAY KNOW, HE LOST
A NUMBER OF ELECTIONS AT THE BEGINNING OF HIS POLITICAL CAREER. SOME WHO FACED THIS DEFEATS, MIGHT

HAVE BEEN DISCOURAGED AND QUIT.

BUT QUENTIN BURDICK KNEW
HE HAD SOMETHING TO OFFER AND HE KEPT ON RUNNING.

AND JUST AS NORTH DAKOTA
WINTERS ALWAYS GIVE WAY TO SPRING, ELECTION DEFEATS GAVE WAY TO VICTORIES.

AND ONCE THE PEOPLE OF
NORTH DAKOTA REALIZED THAT
QUENTIN BURDICK WAS RIGHT, THEY NEVER CHANGED THEIR MIND--JUST AS THEIR SENATOR
NEVER CHANGED HIS PRINCIPLES OR HIS COMMITMENT TO THIS STATE.

NORTH DAKOTA IS A BETTER
PLACE FOR SENATOR BURDICK

HAVING LIVED HERE. THE SENATE IS A BETTER PLACE FOR SENATOR BURDICK HAVING SERVED THERE. AND WE ARE ALL BETTER PEOPLE FOR HAVING THE PRIVILEGE OF
KNOWING THIS GOOD MAN
FROM FARGO.
