MEMORANDUM

JUNE 13, 1994

TO: SENATOR DOLE
FROM: JO-ANNE
SUBJ: HOUSE-SENATE DINNER -- "REPUBLICAN LEADER'S LUNCH"

Some time ago Phil Gramm apparently personally asked you to host a luncheon in connection with the annual House-Senate Dinner. Unfortunately, no one from Gramm's office or the dinner staff bothered to contact anyone on the Dole staffs to let us know about this event.

The luncheon is scheduled for tomorrow at the Library of Congress, with guests arriving at 11:30. It is being billed as "The Republican Leader's Luncheon -- hosted by Senator Bob Dole". Howard Baker is scheduled to introduce you at 12:20, with your remarks to follow.

175 table-buyers and table-hosts are scheduled to attend (list attached). As we predicted, most are, indeed, Washington lobbyist types -- but there are some "heavy hitters" on here as well (e.g., Lod Cook, Governor George Allen, Boone Pickens).

You have major conflict tomorrow with your 12:10 speech in the Dirksen Building to the Women in Military Service, with Ranking Members and Policy Lunch to follow.

You have already told Mo you cannot do this event, but I have the Dinner staff and Gramm's staff crawling all over me to see if there is any way you can stop by for just a few minutes and brief remarks -- at the beginning of the lunch.

PLEASE ADVISE:

☒ WILL STOP BY ~~AT~~ 11:30
