Dear Bob:

I have been remiss in not letting you know how much I appreciate the inscribed copy of "One Soldier's Story." The summer got away from me, but I did take your memoir along when Kitty and I spent three weeks in Easton in August. Needless to say, the book is an inspiring "read" and it deserves wide distribution.

You speak a universal truth – none of us who travels the valleys of life ever walks alone. I've always been proud and honored to call you a colleague and a friend. Thank you for sharing your remarkable story.

Best regards,

Birch Bayh
