

GEORGE BUSH

June 10, 1988

Dear Bob:

I would like to invite you to participate on the Convention Advisory Committee.

I view this committee as an important advisory group that will ensure a successful convention for the entire Republican Party as well as myself. The involvement of each of you personally will guarantee the success of this committee.

Fred Malek, my convention director and co-chair of the Advisory Committee will coordinate the meetings. I understand the first meeting will be held on June 16 at 8:30 am in your Capitol office, S-230. The second meeting which I plan to attend will be held later this month.

Again, your personal time and commitment is important.

Barbara and I are grateful for your strong support. That means a lot to us, as does your friendship.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be "G. Bush", written over a diagonal line that extends from the signature down towards the recipient's address.

George Bush
