

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

March 4, 1976

Dear Bob:

It was good of you to join me for breakfast last Friday. I enjoyed talking over "old times" and reliving some of the past campaigns.

I especially appreciated receiving the endorsement of my candidacy from you and your colleagues. This means a great deal to me personally and is a real shot in the arm for my efforts in obtaining the nomination at the Convention and winning in November.

Your continued advice and support are most welcome and I would be pleased to hear any of your thoughts, suggestions or comments as the campaign moves along.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Jerry Ford". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned to the left of the typed name.
