

THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

February 11, 1971

Dear Bob:

The introduction of the General Revenue Sharing bill marks a significant first step, and I want you to know how much I appreciate your co-sponsorship of this vitally important measure. By providing to state and local officials both the flexibility and the funds to carry out their duties more effectively, this plan would reinforce the responsibility as well as the responsiveness of government.

I, of course, hope your active support for General Revenue Sharing will continue, and I also hope that you will give favorable consideration to the several Special Revenue Sharing bills when they are transmitted to the Congress.

With warm regards,

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be "J. Carter", enclosed within a circular flourish.

Honorable Robert J. Dole
United States Senate
Washington, D.C.