

Dear Folks:

May 22 -

This is strictly a bread and butter letter, you see I'm down to my last penny and I want to go to town this week. I've been almost broke several times but this is the first time I haven't had a cent. The sad part of it is that no one else has any money in the company so we all sit around reading the newspaper and playing the radio.

I hope everyone is fine especially Dad and his bank account. Ten, $15 or $20 will be appreciated, I could get along with less but your know how these girls are. She isn't bad either.

This isn't much of a letter,
I'll write a better one tomorrow night.

Has Kenny ever gotten any of my letters? Things are pretty dull in camp, we aren't working very hard but we are supposed to take a 25 mile hike next week.

I would like to have a little cash though if you didn't spend it all on the garage, I want to buy another set of suntans if I can find any good ones.

Goodnight
Bob.
