

July. 18-

CAMP BARKELEY, TEXAS

Dear Mom and Dad:

Today is Sunday and our day of rest in the Army. We got to sleep until seven, then we had roll call; after that we were released to do as we pleased. I have plenty to do so I won't have much time to play around. I have some clothes to wash, shoes to shine, and quite a few letters to write.

Tomorrow our Basic Training starts and if it is as tough as everyone says it will be I probably won't have much time to write. I wrote six letters Thursday one to you, one to Grace, Grandpa Salbott, Grandpa and Grandma Dole, and I wrote one to Peggy Lynn. I addressed it to her personally so I hope she gets it.

We had 2 letters from Grace and that is all the mail we had since we've been here. I hope to hear from home tomorrow and I hope that you have sent the hangers, for I need them to hang up my clothes.

Our Basic Training starts with a lot of drilling and exercises. After a couple of weeks we start going to class to study, First Aid, Poison Gas, Stretcher bearing and everything that a medical soldier should know. The only thing that I don't like about it is that a medical soldier never carries a gun and they don't even train us how to use one. The only protection that we would have ourselves is a medical red cross on our sleeve. I'd hate to think of being shot at, and not being able to shoot back. I should have a pretty fair chance of either going to school or to Officers Candidate School.

Out of the 250 in our company they pick about 4 for O.C.S.; if I did get a chance to go I don't know whether I would or not. Some want me to go to school and I imagine that you both do to. They don't always give you your choice in the Army though so we'd do whatever they tell me to. I would like to be an officer though; ~~but~~ but I talked to a Second Lieutenant the first day I was here and he told me that if I had a chance to go back to school that that would be the best thing to do.

Send me Henry's address as soon as you get it so that I can write to him.

Hope that you and Dad are getting along all right; don't worry about me for I really like it. It's just like a big fraternity and there are a lot of swell fellows down here.

The war news sound pretty good; don't they?

Good bye
Love
Bob
