

PRESS RELEASE
FEBRUARY 21, 1964

Congressman Bob Dole, (R-Kansas) World War II Veteran and a member of the Russell Kansas V.F.W. Post, will represent Department Commander John J. Stang and the Department of Kansas V.F.W. in the presentation of a wreath during the annual George Washington Birthday celebration which will be held at Washington's Tomb February 22, at Alexandria, Va.

Nearly every Department in the United States is represented in the laying of wreaths on Washington's Tomb to honor the nation's first President.

The ceremony February 22, will be the 30th observance of the National George Washington Birthday Celebration. In addition to the wreath that will be presented by the various Departments, there will also be one from the President of the United States and the Commander in Chief of the V.F.W.

General Chairman for the 1964 George Washington Birthday Celebration is Samuel B. DeVaughan who has served in this capacity for 30 years.
