

for release : Monday, October 19, 1964, P.M.

Hutchinson - Richard Nixon, former Vice-President, will fly directly to Pratt from Lincoln, Nebraska, to attend the Republican rally at Pratt, Wednesday, according to McDill "Huck" Boyd, District Dhairman, today.

"Congressman Bob Dole will join Nixon at Lincoln for the flight to Pratt," said Boyd.

"We had hoped to work out an airport stop in Salina enroute," Boyd continued, "but Nixon's crowded schedule would not permit."

Boyd said that Nixon has a morning meeting at Lincoln before leaving for Pratt, and an arrival time of 11:30. A noon press conference, followed by a 12:30 luncheon and a 2:00 o'clock rally precedes Nixon's scheduled departure for Enid, Oklahoma, at 3:10."