KANSAS Mother of the Year, Mrs. Frank W. Boyd, Sr., of Mankato, will be honored at a reception in Washington, D. C., Tuesday afternoon, May 11.

Co-hosts in the Speaker's Dining Room will be Kansas Senator Frank Carlson and First District Congressman, Bob Dole. Five hundred invitations have been issued to Republican and Democrat leaders, all Republican Senators and House members, their wives, and former Kansans, who are friends of the Boyd family, now living in the Washington area. Betty Boyd, a granddaughter of the honored guest, who is on Rep. Dole's staff, is assisting with arrangements for her grandmother's reception.

Mrs. Boyd, 88, is Associate Editor of the Jewell County Record, Mankato. She has been in New York City the past week attending Mother of the Year festivities. Also in New York and now in Washington are her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. McDill "Huck" Boyd of Phillipsburg.
