FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Washington, D. C. -- U. S. Congressman Bob Dole received the endorsement today of the nonpartisan Americans for Constitutional Action (ACA) in his bid for re-election to Congress.

ACA is the national nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting and preserving Constitutional government; their INDEX, published at the end of each Congressional session, is widely regarded for recording how all members of Congress vote on key issues upholding or refuting the U. S. Constitution.

The endorsement brings support to Congressman Dole from the nationally distinguished citizens, Democrats, Republicans and Independents, of ACA's Board of Trustees; including Edgar N. Eisenhower, John Wayne, and Loyd Wright.

In announcing the endorsement, Charles A. McManus, ACA's Executive Director, stated: "ACA is honored to endorse such an extremely well-qualified and dynamic Congressman. After analyzing his voting record we find that Congressman Dole during the six years that he has represented the First Congressional District has consistently voted for sound money, local self-government and individual freedom. Bob Dole has continually opposed inflationary measures now felt so noticeably; appeasement of the Communists and a socialized economy; and a mushrooming bureaucratic Federal Government.
