

HUTCHINSON, KANSAS
DECEMBER 30, 1966

FOR RELEASE WEDNESDAY
JANUARY 4, 1966

Congressman Bob Dole announced his appointments to the U. S. Military Academy and the U. S. Naval Academy today. The nominations for 2 vacancies at the U. S. Military Academy and 3 vacancies at the U. S. Naval Academy were made on the basis of recommendations of the First Congressional District Screening Board which met in Hays, Kansas, on November 26, 1966. The Board members interviewed the applicants and reviewed their high school records.

Dole added that there were no vacancies for his District at the Air Force Academy for the class year beginning in June, 1967.

The U. S. Naval Academy nominations are as follows:

Principal: John Stevenson, Great Bend

1st Alternate: Thad Nathan Webster, Salina

2nd Alternate: Thomas Gilcrest, Liberal

3rd Alternate: Gregory Morris, Pratt

4th Alternate: Dennis Gray, Lyons

5th Alternate: John Eubank, Pratt

Principal: Craig McFarlane, Salina

1st Alternate: Terry Jobe, Lyons

2nd Alternate: Gary Escher, Herndon

3rd Alternate: Garold Seeger, Dodge City

4th Alternate: Michael McGinley, Dodge City

5th Alternate: Bruce Wendelin, Herndon

Principal: Alfred Jacobs, Pfeifer

1st Alternate: Larry Smith, Dighton

2nd Alternate: Edward Crawford, Salina

3rd Alternate: John Stevens, Ashland

4th Alternate: Michael Bolton, Smith Center

5th Alternate: Philip Zillinger, Phillipsburg

The U. S. Military Academy nominations are as follows:

Principal: Ivan Birrer, Atwood

1st Alternate: Sam Clovis, Medora

2nd Alternate: Nicholas Daily, Coldwater

3rd Alternate: Galen Bland, Hutchinson

4th Alternate: Michael Bolton, Smith Center

5th Alternate: John Murray, Holyrood

Principal: Robert Elliott, Osborne

1st Alternate: Robert Lundy, Russell

2nd Alternate: Donald Corn, Friend

3rd Alternate: Bruce Wendelin, Herndon

4th Alternate: David Dinges, Hays

5th Alternate: Scott Hutchison, WaKeeney

Congressman Dole also announced that Bert Snook, Russell, was nominated to the Coast Guard Academy and that David Reynolds, Lyons, was nominated to the Merchant Marine Academy.