#####

Five members of the Kansas congressional delegation in the U. s. House of Representatives have inaugurated this year weekly meetings to discuss legislative issues and matters of importance to the State of Kansas.

The weekly sessions are held on Tuesday mornings and are rotated in the offices of each of the House members.

Each of the congressmen reports on the work on his respective House Committee. The members and their committee assignments are:

Bob Dole, 1st District, Agriculture and Government Operations; Chester L. Mize, 2nd District, Banking and Currency; Larry Winn, Jr., 3rd District, Science and Astronautics and District of Columbia; Garner E. Shriver, 4th District, Appropriations; and Joe Skubitz, 5th District, Interior and Insular Affairs and Public Works.
