FOR RELEASE AM'S TUESDAY, MARCH 5, 1968

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 5 -- Congressman Bob Dole today announced the names of eight Kansans who will speak at the March 22 Senior Citizens Conference in Hays.

The conference, designed to review and explain federal and state programs affecting persons over age 60, will begin at 1:30 p.m. in the National Guard Armory.

Government officials joining Dole in the afternoon panel discussion are: Mrs. Loudell Frazier of Topeka, State Department of Social Welfare; John M. Hobbble of Wichita, Small Business Administration; Virgil E. Neil of Wichita, Veterans Administration Center; John Towns of Stockton, Kansas Veterans Commission; Isador Schmidt of Hays, Kansas Employment Service and Paul A. Young of Hays, Social Security Administration.

Two other Hays residents -- Lloyd Beach and Mrs. C. H. Landrum -- will also take part in the discussion.

Dole said invitations will be mailed soon to persons in Norton, Phillips, Smith, Graham, Rooks, Osborne, Trego, Ellis, Russell, Ness, Rush, Barton, Pawnee, Stafford, Edwards, Kiowa and Pratt counties.

The first conference was held in December in Salina.
