

DOLE FOR SENATE HEADQUARTERS

TOPEKA, KANSAS
AUGUST 13, 1968

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Robert G. (Bob) Gadberry, State Chairman of the Dole for Senate Committee, today praised Rooks County Republicans. Gadberry pointed out that 90.8% of the Republicans in Rooks County voted for Congressman Bob Dole in the U. S. Senate race, which represented the highest percentage of any county in Kansas. Chairman of the Rooks County Dole for Senate Committee is Mrs. Robert Chesney of Woodston. Co-Chairmen are Freeman Muir of Plainville and Cleo Baughman of Stockton.

A close second to Rooks County was Norton County with 90.4%; Smith County with 89.8%; Rawlins County with 89.6%; Russell County with 89.5%; and Gove County with 89%.

Gadberry stated that these percentages are based on unofficial returns.
