FOR RELEASE AM'S WEDNESDAY, JAN. 29, 1969

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 29 -- U.S. Senator Bob Dole today announced the appointment of Frank Mosier, Manhattan, as his Kansas representative.

Mosier, assistant vice president of the First National Bank in Manhattan since 1966, will continue living in Manhattan, but will travel extensively throughout Kansas, representing Senator Dole at meetings and conferences.

A lifelong resident of the state, Mosier was born in Hoxie and was graduated from the Sheridan Community High School in 1947. A 1951 graduate in business administration from Kansas State University, Mosier later received a master's degree in agricultural economics and secondary education credentials from K.S.U. From 1951-1961, he served as director of ticket sales and office manager for the university's department of intercollegiate athletics.

Prior to employment as director of student and public affairs for the Schilling Institute of Technology in Salina, Mosier served as director of research and legislation for the Kansas Farm Bureau from 1961-65.

The 39-year-old Kansan is married to the former Joan Mahanna of Hoxie. They have three children. Mosier was active in Dole's campaign for the U.S. Senate, serving as treasurer of the state campaign committee.
