FROM: THE OFFICE OF SENATOR BOB DOLE (R-KANS.)
NEW SENATE OFFICE BUILDING
EXT. 6521

FOR RELEASE PM'S MONDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1969

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 3 -- U.S. Senator and Mrs. Bob Dole and Robin were among 300 guests joining President Richard M. Nixon in the White House yesterday for the second Sunday worship service there.

The Rev. Dr. Richard C. Halverson of the Bethesda, Md. Fourth Presbyterian church gave the sermon for the Nixon family, invited members of the White House staff, the Cabinet, House and Senate. The President plans to hold the services weekly when he is at the White House.

The Kansas Senator said his daughter Robin, 14, invited the President to the Dole home for dinner sometime. Dole said there was no immediate response.

Former Senator Frank Carlson, who was in Washington for the President's Prayer Breakfast last week, also attended the service.
