

FROM: THE OFFICE OF U.S. SENATOR BOB DOLE
NEW SENATE OFFICE BUILDING
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510
(202) 225-6521

34

FOR RELEASE UPON RECEIPT

WASHINGTON, D.C., Feb. 18, 1969 -- Nearly 650 persons, including many U.S. Senators, the Kansas Congressmen and their staffs attended the Kansas Pancake Breakfast in the New Senate Office Building cafeteria here Tuesday (Feb. 18).

The Washington breakfast is held each year in conjunction with the Liberal, Kans. - Olney, England International Pancake Day race held simultaneously in Liberal and Olney.

From left to right in the enclosed photograph taken at the breakfast are: U.S. Representative Larry Winn of Kansas' 3rd congressional district; U.S. Representative Keith Sebelius of the 1st congressional district; U.S. Senator Bob Dole, chairman of the 1969 Washington breakfast, and U.S. Representative Chester Mize of the 2nd congressional district.

Others who attended the breakfast included: Robert Ellsworth, special assistant to President Nixon and Samuel C. Jackson, assistant secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development, both former Kansans.