

May 22, 1969

101

ON JUDGE WARREN E. BURGER

"President Nixon has made the most important nomination a President can make..a nomination which could have a long-range and far-reaching effect on individual Americans. From all indications, his choice for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court is superb. Judge Warren Burger is highly regarded among his colleagues. His achievements over the years show him to be a responsible and capable man."